

HE THAT RUNS MAY BE BEATEN
PRINTED DAILY IN 1888, 33,641
IN 1888, 288,970
Fix These Figures in His Mind

PRICE ONE CENT

THE EVENING WORLD

JUMPERS AT PELHAM.

First Day of the Country Club Steeplechases.

Little Rascal, McKenzie, Harry Mann Among the Winners.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
PELHAM RACE COURSE, May 28.—A good many people journeyed here to-day from New York to witness the opening day of the Country Club Steeplechase Association spring meeting. Ladies boarded the special train for the race course and joined with their escorts in viewing the horses which were taken to the course at Ocala, Fla., and will try to repeat their victories here. It was through mud for a mile from the depot to the course, but this was no greater obstacle to the spectators than the rain at Ocala. The sky was overcast, but the track was in good condition. French met with a few minor mishaps, but the only serious one was that of Little Rascal, who fell at the start of the first race.

At 3 o'clock, Mr. C. Post, Jr., and S. S. Sands were the judges. The first race, a sweepstakes for maiden polo ponies at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. Little Rascal, McKenzie, Harry Mann, and others were the favorites. Little Rascal won by a head, McKenzie second, Harry Mann third. The second race, a sweepstakes for geldings at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. Little Rascal won by a head, McKenzie second, Harry Mann third.

The race was a close one, but Little Rascal was too good for the others. The third race, a sweepstakes for geldings at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. Little Rascal won by a head, McKenzie second, Harry Mann third. The fourth race, a sweepstakes for geldings at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. Little Rascal won by a head, McKenzie second, Harry Mann third.

The race was a close one, but Little Rascal was too good for the others. The fifth race, a sweepstakes for geldings at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. Little Rascal won by a head, McKenzie second, Harry Mann third. The sixth race, a sweepstakes for geldings at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. Little Rascal won by a head, McKenzie second, Harry Mann third.

The race was a close one, but Little Rascal was too good for the others. The seventh race, a sweepstakes for geldings at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. Little Rascal won by a head, McKenzie second, Harry Mann third. The eighth race, a sweepstakes for geldings at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. Little Rascal won by a head, McKenzie second, Harry Mann third.

The race was a close one, but Little Rascal was too good for the others. The ninth race, a sweepstakes for geldings at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. Little Rascal won by a head, McKenzie second, Harry Mann third. The tenth race, a sweepstakes for geldings at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. Little Rascal won by a head, McKenzie second, Harry Mann third.

The race was a close one, but Little Rascal was too good for the others. The eleventh race, a sweepstakes for geldings at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. Little Rascal won by a head, McKenzie second, Harry Mann third. The twelfth race, a sweepstakes for geldings at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. Little Rascal won by a head, McKenzie second, Harry Mann third.

Western Passenger Trains in Collision
(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
TERRA HAUTE, Ind., May 28.—This morning about 6 o'clock two passenger trains on the Evansville and Terra Haute Railroad came into collision at Terra Haute, eight miles south of this city. Both locomotives were totally wrecked and the passenger coaches badly shaken up. A panic prevailed among the passengers, many of whom were violently thrown from their sleeping berths. Several were badly injured.

BROOKLYN'S FLYERS

An "Off Day," but Good Racing at Gravesend.

The "Card" Called for Six "Events," but Seven Were Run.

King Crab, Fenelon, Sam Wood, Specialty, Favor, Woodson and Pocastello Win.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, May 28.—The prospect of seeing Pocastello, Tea Tray and other old favorites in good races, even though there are no important stakes fixtures, brought a fair attendance to the Brooklyn Jockey Club's race-track to-day. The weather, which in town looked favorable enough, was threatening when the grounds were reached, and the crowd rushed up, under a heavy brush under the grand stand, to find the paddock and gather tips from "outs," jockies and casual acquaintances, some of whom they wouldn't recognize in a half-respectable bar-room.

Pocastello's name was seen to head the list of non-starters. No owner could be blamed for keeping his nag in stable for the track, in spite of the fact that Pocastello was as good as dead, and was actually seen in the paddock. It was much heavier than on Saturday.

The first race, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. King Crab won by a head, Fenelon second, Sam Wood third. The second race, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. King Crab won by a head, Fenelon second, Sam Wood third.

The third race, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. King Crab won by a head, Fenelon second, Sam Wood third. The fourth race, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. King Crab won by a head, Fenelon second, Sam Wood third.

The fifth race, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. King Crab won by a head, Fenelon second, Sam Wood third. The sixth race, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. King Crab won by a head, Fenelon second, Sam Wood third.

The seventh race, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. King Crab won by a head, Fenelon second, Sam Wood third. The eighth race, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. King Crab won by a head, Fenelon second, Sam Wood third.

The ninth race, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. King Crab won by a head, Fenelon second, Sam Wood third. The tenth race, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. King Crab won by a head, Fenelon second, Sam Wood third.

The eleventh race, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. King Crab won by a head, Fenelon second, Sam Wood third. The twelfth race, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds at $50 each, for or pay, with a cup added; minimum weight 150 lb.; half a mile. King Crab won by a head, Fenelon second, Sam Wood third.

Western Passenger Trains in Collision
(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
TERRA HAUTE, Ind., May 28.—This morning about 6 o'clock two passenger trains on the Evansville and Terra Haute Railroad came into collision at Terra Haute, eight miles south of this city. Both locomotives were totally wrecked and the passenger coaches badly shaken up. A panic prevailed among the passengers, many of whom were violently thrown from their sleeping berths. Several were badly injured.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, MAY 28, 1888.

THE DYING GENERAL

Very Little Hope for the Hero of Winchester.

At 3 O'Clock To-Day There Was No Immediate Danger.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
WASHINGTON, May 28.—Gen. Sheridan passed a wretched night. During the early hours he did not sleep at all, but tossed about restlessly upon his bed, his labored respiration denoting the great effort with which he fought against suffocation. Oxygen was administered several times, but its effects were but temporary, and was usually followed by a reaction.

Between 2 and 4 o'clock this morning he was delirious, and often broke the silence about him by calling loudly to have a door shut or a window opened. He frequently cried out as if in great pain, his voice being plainly audible to the knot of newspaper men who spent the night walking up and down the opposite side of the avenue and crossing now and then to put inquiries to the sober-faced attendants who guarded the door.

He became much quieter after 4 o'clock, but it was simply the effect of a sinking spell, and at 6 o'clock he was feebler than he had yet been. A change for the better then set in, and he rallied a little. At 10 o'clock the doctors issued a bulletin dated 9 o'clock, which they held back for a full hour in order that his improvement might justify the statements made therein.

Consentation, 9 A. M.—Gen. Sheridan passed a bad night, having an irregular pulse, labored respiration and being frequently delirious. Since dawn, however, and especially within the last hour, there has been slight but distinct improvement in all his symptoms. His pulse is 110 and steady. The edema of the legs has gradually subsided and is now slight. His countenance is an ample supply of nourishment, which seems to be assimilated.

At 11 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

MIKE KELLY HAS PNEUMONIA.

The Ten Thousand-Dollar Beauty May Be Laid Up for Several Days.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
BOSTON, May 28.—Mike Kelly, Boston's $10,000 beauty, is down sick with pneumonia at his rooms at the Marlborough. Mr. Kelly has not been feeling well since the return of the team from its Western trip, and his indisposition manifested itself yesterday. Mike may be laid up some days.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

An Unfading Comet in The Newspaper Sky.
THE WORLD IS THE BEST
Advertising Medium.
IT HAS BLAZED WITH
55,573 "Wants" This Month

PRICE ONE CENT

YES, NEW YORK WON

Starting Result of To-Day's Game With Washington.

Mutrie's Men Hit "Grasshopper" Jim" Int he Fifth.

New York - - - 9 Washington - - - 0

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
Polo Grounds, May 28.—There was but little poetry in the dull leaden clouds which overhung the Polo Grounds to-day and very little romance in the broad suspicion of rain which moistened the air. It was the same weather which has hovered over the standard of the Giants since the beginning of the season—something in the manner that a wet hen would hover over a large-sized nest of goose eggs.

The Senators had their cheering battery, Whitney and Mack, in the points, while the Giants pinned their faith to Keefe and Ewing. There were about one thousand people on the grounds when play was called. The game was witnessed by a delegation of the Richmond Grays, who are in the city for the purpose of participating in the ceremonies of Memorial Day. They occupied President Day's box.

The batting order was as follows:
NEW YORK. Dally, 1. Whitney, 2. O'Brien, 3. Myers, 4. Hoyer, 5. Cleveland, 6. Keefe, 7. Umpire—Mr. Daniels.
WASHINGTON. Dally, 1. Whitney, 2. O'Brien, 3. Myers, 4. Hoyer, 5. Cleveland, 6. Keefe, 7. Umpire—Mr. Daniels.

Washington took the field and George Gore stepped to the plate for the Giants. He hit the second ball pitched along the left chalk line for two bases. He was advanced to third on Terman's error on a grounder to shortstop. Whitney fanned out. Whitney's hands and Gore were caught off third and run out. Ward went to second on the play. Ewing threw the side out on a bunt hit. The play, which was held to first by Mack.

Dally fell an easy victim on a grounder to Keefe. He was advanced to second base and went to first. He ran down to second on O'Brien's error on a grounder to shortstop. Whitney was the third man out on a grounder to Cleveland. Second Inning—New York was retired on a slow grounder to center. Irwin performed the same service on a grounder to shortstop. Myers struck out. Little Hoy followed suit. Mack ended the inning with a grounder to Richmond. Ewing threw the side out on a bunt hit.

Third Inning—Cleveland drew out to Hoy. Keefe lifted a fly which fell into the same hands. Gore Irwin struck out. Donnelly was retired on a bunt hit to Keefe. Dally fell a victim to Keefe's curve ball. Whitney was retired on a bunt hit to Keefe. Ewing's average is second among the League third basemen. Keefe's average is second among the League third basemen.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.

At 3 o'clock the doctors stated there was no immediate danger of a fatal termination. At 1:30 there had been no material change in Gen. Sheridan's condition. The following bulletin has just been issued: Three O'Clock Consultation—Gen. Sheridan retains all the improvement noted in morning bulletin, and in addition his mind is markedly clearer.